Tim:

Attached is the updated matrix for the roadmap. I have started to add projected dates when the various items will be available. Julia is inserting all the items into a separate file on the PMOC-PE ProjectSolve site. As soon as she has all the items completed, we will start populating with the available items. This should occur next week.

I have not transmitted this updated matrix to anybody outside the Project other than you. It is your decision if you want to distribute tomorrow prior to the meeting.
